Additional Info & Registration: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/margaret-roach-open-garden-broken-arrow-plant-sale-tickets-848323647867>

The garden, more than 30 years old, reflects Margaret’s obsession with plants, particularly those with good foliage or of interest to wildlife, and also her belief that even in Zone 5B the view out the window can be compelling and satisfying all 365 days of the year. Informal mixed borders, shrubberies, frog-filled water gardens, and container groupings cover the steep 2.3-acre hillside. It's a former orchard with a simple Victorian-era farmhouse and little outbuildings in Copake Falls, NY, set in Taconic State Park lands on a rural farm road. Tickets are timed in 2-hour increments (10-noon, noon-2, 2-4) to help with traffic flow; you are welcome at any time in that 2-hour window. Adam Wheeler will be at Margaret’s for the day. This is one of many events that are part of The Workshop Experience Weekend.
